"I've always had the belief that we can work together and do the business of the county for the people of the county," Gamache said. "That means building roads, having a social services system that assists people in many ways, running quality elections, and making sure everything else is running as it should on a day-to-day basis. This is what our residents expect of us, and my fellow commissioners and I will continue to work together, with county staff, and the public to ensure Anoka County provides all the proper amenities and services."
